

RECURSIVE SATURATION FROM A VALUE THEORETIC POINT OF VIEW

Paola D'Aquino

Seconda Università di Napoli

Recursive saturation is ubiquitous in non standard models of Peano Arithmetic. Countable recursively saturated real closed fields have been characterized as those which admit an integer part which is a model of Peano Arithmetic. I will present a characterization of recursively saturated real closed fields and ordered divisible abelian groups in terms of valuation theory.